Cortus of Minila papers received at the War Department contain a letter, purporting to be from a personal friend of Auctivation, which states that the Filipino chief does not take advantage of the amnesty proclamation because some time ago he gave orders to his followers to break up into guerrilla bands. The amnesty orders except those who violated the laws of war, and it states that AUTIVALID fears that he would be in the excepted class should he undertake to aurrender under the amnesty proclamation.

The letter states that AUTIVALID of letter states that AUTIVALID of lever stays more than one night in a place, and only a few hours in any one locality. He allows no one to come near him except his most intimate personal friends.

THERE is an interesting subsidence of the hue and cry from Democratic sources about "militarism." The phenomenon has been coincidental with BRYAN's long silence about China and final confession that the Administration was doing the right thing there. It "militarism" is right in China, as Mr. BRYAN admits, why is it wrong in the Philippines. Troops in China may avenge crimes that have been committed, but can never restore the lives of people that have been already massacred. In the Philippines the use of American troops has prevented the perpetration of such horrors as in China have shocked the whole world, including even Mr. BRYAN, Manila was prevented from becoming a charnel house only through the vigilance of American troops who were on guard duty the night that AGUINALDO had set for the general massacre of a Mericans and Europeans in that city. How about the old adage that "An ounce of prevention is worth one pound of cure?" THERE is an interesting subsidence

CHINESE MAKING A FINAL STAND

The News That the Relief Column Had iteached the Legations Confirmed From Several Points.

Washington, Aug. 20.—From Gen. Chaffee the war department received official continuation of the fall of Pecking and the rescue of the besleged legationers. The dispatch of the American commander was not long and contained few details, but the unconceased astifaction with which it was received by officials of the administration indicated clearly the analety that had been engendered by his prolonged sience. The last communication to the government, prior to the receipt of this dispatch was dated August 11 at Martow, almost 30 miles from Pecking. The explanation of his silence is suggested in advices received by the navy department from Adm. Remey, who, telegraphing from Adm. Remey, who, telegraphing from Caku on the Sith, says the telegraph line between that point and Peking is interrupted.

The cablegram from Adm. Remey contains some important information of the startling statement, on makes the startling statement, on the startling statement and the st
